PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in June 2004.

Bay Area Medical Center Pharmacy, Marinette – Pharmacy. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Bay Area Medical Center Pharmacy and ordered $250 in costs and a $1,000 forfeiture. The establishment allowed an employee to work in the establishment as a pharmacist without a valid Wisconsin license. [LS0406245PHM]

Benjamin Begley, Oshkosh – Physician and Surgeon. The Medical Examining Board suspended the license of Benjamin Begley for a period of six months. Begley, on multiple occasions, diverted controlled substances for his personal use. After six months of suspension, Begley may petition the board for a stay of suspension upon compliance with specified limitations. Begley was also ordered to pay $950 in costs. [LS0406161MED]

Paul Cooper, Milwaukee – Barbering and Cosmetology Establishment Owner. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Paul Cooper, owner of Tight Again Salon an establishment in Milwaukee, to pay $350 in costs and a $3,000 forfeiture. During an inspection it was found that Cooper was providing services without a barbering or cosmetology manager's license. During the same inspection, and on later inspections, other employees were found providing services without current licenses and the establishment license was also expired. [LS0406072BAC]

Deborah Cravilion, DePere – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing reprimanded Deborah Cravilion for failing to assess a patient under her care and failing to inform anyone else of the change in the patient's condition. Cravilion was also ordered to complete continuing education. [LS0406103NUR]

Dawn Danielski, Green Bay – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing imposed limitations on the license of Dawn Danielski for exposing patients in her care to harm and neglect. During her employment at three healthcare facilities, Danielski frequently worked 72 hour shifts without any breaks between the three facilities. The Board found Danielski fell asleep several times while she was on duty. [LS0406104NUR]

Dennis Dawiedczyk, Janesville – Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Dennis Dawiedczyk and ordered him to pay $630.80 in costs and a $250 forfeiture. Dawiedczyk maintained incomplete schedule V controlled substances registers. [LS0406244PHM]

Gloria Dowell, Onalaska – Barbering and Cosmetology Manager. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Gloria Dowell to pay $200 in costs and a $1,000 forfeiture. An inspection of Dowell's home revealed that Dowell had set up a salon in her home without an establishment license. [LS0406073BAC]

John Giffin, Milwaukee – Clinical Social Worker. The Social Work Section of the Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling and Social Work Examining Board suspended the license of John Giffin for at least two years and ordered him to pay $235 in costs. Giffin engaged in sexual conduct with a patient. [LS0406091SOC]

Phillip Gray, Jr., Milwaukee – Barbering and Cosmetology Manager. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Phillip Gray, Jr. to pay a $400 forfeiture. On multiple inspections of a salon where Gray was employed, he was found to be providing barbering and cosmetology services with an expired license. The salon's license has also expired. [LS0406075BAC]

Health Pharmacies Inc., Madison – Pharmacy. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Health Pharmacies Inc. and ordered $3,000 in costs. Health Pharmacies Inc. failed to comply with an earlier disciplinary order of the board placing limitations on compounding prescription drugs to be administered to patients by practitioners. [LS0401071PHM]

John Hogden, Black River Falls – Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded John Hogden and ordered him to pay $1,000 in costs. Hogden dispensed the incorrect medication to two different patients on two separate occasions. [LS0406246PHM]

Anne Ingeman, Rhinelander – Licensed Practice Nurse. Following a hearing, the Board of Nursing revoked Anne Ingeman's license. Ingeman appeared for work as a nurse while under the influence of controlled substances and diverted controlled substances from her place of employment for her personal use. [LS0403182NUR]

Gary Inhoff, Hayward – Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Gary Inhoff and ordered him to pay $400 in costs and a $1,000 forfeiture. Inhoff routinely left prescriptions for customer pick-up after pharmacy hours at the courtesy counter of the grocery store where the pharmacy Inhoff manages is located. Inhoff also allowed unlicensed people to transfer prescriptions to patients without a pharmacist present to provide a consultation. [LS0406247PHM]

Sean Jones, Kenosha – Private Security. Following a hearing, the Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Sean Jones' private security permit. When Jones filed an application for his permit, he failed to notify the Department of his previous convictions in Kenosha County. [LS0310092RSG]

Sean Jones, Kenosha – Private Security. Following a hearing, the Department of Regulation and Licensing denied the renewal application of Sean Jones. Jones was convicted of misdemeanor crimes in Kenosha County and failed to notify the Department of his convictions when asked on the renewal application. [LS0309181RSG]

Robert Kiefert, Oregon – Private Detective; Inteltec, Oregon – Private Detective Agency. Following a hearing, the Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked the licenses of both Robert Kiefert and Inteltec. Kiefert, the sole proprietor of Inteltec, was convicted in Dane County Circuit Court and failed to inform the Department of the convictions. [LS0307171RAL]

My Le, Madison – Manicurist; Myles Nails, Madison – Manicuring Establishment; 007 Nails, Madison – Manicuring Establishment. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered My Le, Myles Nails, and 007 Nails to pay $1,000 in costs and a $4,000 forfeiture. During inspections of Myles Nails and 007 Nails, unlicensed employees were found working in the establishments without a manicuring license, numerous sanitation violations were noted, and the establishment Myles Nails was providing waxing services without an aesthetics establishment license. [LS0406076BAC]

Ngan Le, Baraboo – Manicurist; Hollywood Nails, Baraboo – Manicuring Establishment. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Ngan Le and Hollywood Nails to pay $500 in costs and a $1,100 forfeiture after an inspection of the establishment revealed sanitation violations and an employee with an expired apprenticeship permit providing services to a client. [LS0406077BAC]

Kenneth Martinsek, Milwaukee – Veterinary Medicine. The Veterinary Examining Board ordered Kenneth Martinsek to complete continuing education in post surgical care and monitoring; pharmacology; small animal diagnostic critical care and recordkeeping. When caring for a client's dog following surgery, Martinsek failed to offer to perform adequate lab testing, failed to try an alternative antibiotic, failed to adequately monitor the dog's condition, and failed to maintain appropriate patient records. The Board in addition imposed costs of $1,052.46. [LS04062413VET]

Nail First, Cudahy – Manicuring Establishment; Peter Nguyen, Milwaukee – Manicurist. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board reprimanded Nails First and Peter Nguyen and ordered a $1,400 forfeiture. An inspection of the establishment revealed an unlicensed employee providing services to clients and multiple sanitation violations. [LS0406074BAC]

Excell Najieb, Milwaukee – Barbering and Cosmetology Manager; Excell's House of Style, Milwaukee – Barbering and Cosmetology Establishment. The Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board ordered Excell Najieb and Excell's House of Style to pay $200 in costs and a $200 forfeiture. Excell failed to follow apprenticeship rules, failed to maintain the salon in a clean and sanitary condition, and failed to pay the apprentices for the hours of school attendance and practical training. The establishment was also ordered not to employ new apprentices for one year. [LS0406078BAC]

Shirley Natzel, Delafield – Private Practice of School Psychology. The Psychology Examining Board reprimanded Shirley Natzel. Natzel failed to obtain 40 hours of board-approved continuing education during the 2001-2003 biennium. Natzel was also ordered to pay $400 in costs. [LS0406302PSY]
